

Joanna Rayford is currently the Director of Home Healthcare and Hospice Services at Providence Medical Center in Wayne, Nebraska. She is looking to serve on the Nebraska Home Care Association Board as Secretary.

Joanna said, “I received my associate’s degree in nursing from Northeast Community College in Norfolk, NE in 2003 and I am currently pursuing my bachelor’s degree from Methodist College in Omaha and will graduate in August 2025. I have worked as a Registered Nurse since that time in a variety of specialty areas. My previous work experience includes positions at the Nebraska Heart Hospital in Lincoln. I have also served in the cardiopulmonary unit, cardiac catheterization lab and cardiology clinic at Faith Regional Health Services in Norfolk. I graduated from the Nebraska Hospital Association Leadership Institute program in 2018 and have been working in a leadership role as the Director of Home Healthcare and Hospice for the past eight years.”
